JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

NOW, on this 10 day of Dec., 1997, this matter came on before me, the undersigned Judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court, for consideration of the entry of this Journal Entry of Judgment. The parties having reached an agreed resolution of this Adversary Proceeding, this Journal Entry of Judgment is submitted to the Court for entry by agreement. The agreement of the parties being evidenced by the signatures affixed hereto, the Court finds:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter in this core proceeding pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §157.
2. The parties agree that a judgment should be entered in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendant which shall be excepted from the discharge of the Defendant/Debtor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(2).

DOCKETED 12-11, 1997
Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court
Northern District of Oklahoma

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. This judgment is excepted from the discharge entered in this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(2).

2. An in personam money judgment is entered for the Plaintiff, Cummins Materials, Inc. and against the Defendant, Keith W. Mateychick, in the sum of $20,000.00, inclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs.

3. If the Defendant pays the sum of $2,500.00 according to the terms hereof, then this judgment shall be deemed fully paid and satisfied. The $2,500.00 shall no bear interest for 90 days from and after the entry of this Judgment. Thereafter, such amount shall bear interest at 10% per annum simple interest until one (1) year after the entry of this Judgment. Defendant may pay the amount due, both principal and interest, if any shall have accrued, at any time prior to the expiration of one (1) year after the entry of this Judgment. Provided said payment of $2,500.00 and accrued interest is paid within one (1) year, said Judgment of $20,000.00 shall be deemed paid in full and fully satisfied.
