JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now on this 26th day of November, 1997, comes on the above referenced cause. The parties have announced a settlement has been reached and each agrees to the judgment herein. The Court finds that jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter is proper and that the agreed judgment is proper. The Court further finds that the parties agree that the Judgment shall be in the principal sum of $5,000.00.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the allegations in the Complaint be taken as true and confessed against the Defendant, Tracy Lynette Welsh, and that the claim of the Plaintiff, Mercantile Bank of Illinois, is determined to be non-dischargeable in the instant chapter 7 proceeding, in the principal sum of $5,000.00, with applicable interest thereon.

IT IS SO ORDERED

United States Bankruptcy Judge

DOCKETED 12-1, 1997.
